FORMAL REQUEST

TO: RESPECTIVE ORGANIZATION

FROM: Walter Washington, Program Coordinator

There are many advantages to partnerships in the community, especially in the area of community awareness. The Arkansas Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission, with the assistance of the Arkansas Humanities Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Arkansas Department of Education, and the Arkansas Black History Commission, has released the third edition of the Arkansas African American History Makers Coloring Book. This coloring book will serve as an important resource in educating our youth about the significance of each individual historian within it. Few of our young citizens are exposed to many African Americans who were important contributors that advanced civil rights and helped paved the way for all Arkansans. It is our hope that you will recognize the unsung heroes as well as learn and appreciate their struggles and triumphs. We hope you become motivated by these individuals and become agents that will encourage future generations.

While there are many history makers not included in this volume, your thoughts and ideas for future volumes are welcomed. You may visit our website, “Like” us on our Facebook page, or call our office to learn how you may assist in the effort to live the dream and make change happen.

Therefore, the Arkansas Martin Luther King Commission graciously requests to distribute an allowable amount of copies of the Arkansas African American History Makers Coloring Book through your respective organization. Your anticipated participation is greatly appreciated and we look forward to your support.

Respectfully,

Walter Washington
